CHUKAT

Numbers 19:1–22:1

Moses is taught the laws of the red heifer, whose ashes purify a person who has been contaminated by contact with a dead body.

After forty years of journeying through the desert, the people of Israel arrive in the wilderness of Zin. Miriam dies, and the people thirst for water. G-d tells Moses to speak to a rock and command it to give water. Moses gets angry at the rebellious Israelites and strikes the stone. Water issues forth, but Moses is told by G-d that neither he nor Aaron will enter the Promised Land.

Aaron dies at Hor Hahar and is succeeded in the high priesthood by his son Elazar. Venomous snakes attack the Israelite camp after yet another eruption of discontent in which the people "speak against G-d and Moses"; G-d tells Moses to place a brass serpent upon a high pole, and all who will gaze heavenward will be healed. The people sing a song in honor of the miraculous well that provided them water in the desert.

Moses leads the people in battles against the Emorite kings Sichon and Og (who seek to prevent Israel's passage through their territory) and conquers their lands, which lie east of the Jordan.

REFUAH SH'LEIMA (Speedy Recovery)

Cheryl Morgan and Norma Lee Schwartz

May the Holy One, Blessed is He, be filled with compassion for them, to restore their health, to heal them, to strengthen and revivify them. May He send them a speedy and complete recovery from heaven, a recovery of the body and a recovery of the spirit, swiftly and soon. Amen.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear members and friends;

By now, some of you have already heard through the grapevine that the members of Cong. Kol Shalom have voted not to join us for High Holiday services here at KI. I will be sending out a letter to you shortly containing more details. I do want you to know that we are already planning for our High Holiday services and that we have already secured the services of Rabbi Phillip Lieberman who was with us last year. Please feel free to reach out to me with any questions you may have via email at ckipres16@gmail.com or phone at (C)410-507-4508 or (H)410-269-1789. We are looking forward to our beautiful and inspiring services enhanced by our wonderful choir.

Shabbat Shalom,
Michael
