Dear Congregants,

It pleases me to inform you that we have retained the services of an outstanding rabbi for the High Holidays this year. His name is Rabbi Dr. Phillip Lieberman from Nashville, TN.

Here are a few of his attributes:

He is a Chaplain in the United States Navy Reserve.

He is an Associate Professor at Vanderbilt University with Tenure in:

Jewish Studies and Law,

Religious Studies,

Islamic Studies and History.

Previous Experience and Education:

New York University – Assist. Professor/Faculty Fellow, Hebrew & Judaic Studies.

Princeton University – Ph.D. in Near Eastern Studies,

-MA in Near Eastern Studies.

Rabbinic Ordination – May 2002, Jewish Theological Seminary of America.

MA in Talmud and Rabbinics.

Bet Din – Certified Mesaddrei Gittin, January 2013

Lipscomb University, Nashville.

London School of Economics.

University of Washington – BA w/Distinction in Economics.

Rabbi Lieberman will be conducting most of our services assisted by our wonderfully dedicated Gabbaim and our melodic choir under the direction of our phenomenal music director, Shouvik Mondle. We hope and encourage you to join us for what we feel will be an inspirational, fulfilling, and memorable High Holidays experience. More information on the High Holiday schedule will be coming to you shortly.

Best Regards,

Michael
